

The Lesley Anne Davies Trio

Lesley Anne Davies (Singer & Martin guitar) Brigit Forsyth (cello) | Monica Gillespie (bass)

Lesley Anne Davies is a Stockport born singer/songwriter who likes to play her beautiful guitar and sing story-songs, some serious; some a bit daft – influenced by blues, jazz and contemporary folk. Lesley has been involved with many bands including local talent Bad Dog (blues) and has provided vocals for a multitude of recordings such as 12 Cecil Road (George Borowski).

Lesley teamed up with Brigit Forsyth (cello) and Monica Gillespie (bass) in the summer of 2015 to form a trio with a unique sound. Brigit currently also plays with The Fir Cones and has recorded albums with Annie Raitt and Lucy Raitton. Monica performs blues/rock with The Bostock Basement Band.

The trio love to get together to play, whether rehearsing or gigging, and hope that you enjoy listening as much as they enjoy performing.
